

The company Feld & Volk, proven world's best manufacturer of luxury gadgets, will show its new Apple-based mobile devices at Baselworld-2015, the largest international exhibition of watch and jewelry industries, held in Basel (Switzerland) from the 19th till the 26th of March. It will be the second appearance of the brand at this world's professional platform.

Feld & Volk will present one-of-a-kind devices based on iPhone 6, made of the most expensive and exquisite materials. The company does not cease to amaze: in addition to the traditional WOOD collection models wherein relict wood has been used, in the new year it presents new gadgets in carbon, alligator leather and sapphire glass, as much as with use of solid gold.

The hallmark of Feld & Volk devices is the finest elaboration of every single detail, as well as glowing logos on phone's rear. Exhibition visitors will get acquainted with Feld & Volk's Atelier works - "custom phones" (mobile devices, carried out following individual projects). Among the owners of such gadgets are UAE Crown Prince, as well as leading representatives of international business circles. Moreover, the company is presented in one of the world's best concept-stores - Colette in Paris. Feld & Volk launched the sales of its WOOD collection there on the day of European iPhone 6 start of sales.

FELD & VOLK REVEALS UNIQUE GADGETS AT JEWELRY SHOW IN SWITZERLAND

Become familiar with Feld & Volk devices at Baselworld-2015, 19-26 March in Hall of Impressions (2.0) at the showcase V06.

Feld & Volk embodies splendor in mobile devices. Through the years of experience in creating exclusive luxury gadgets, the company regularly presents new collections aiming to pay the most attention both to details and to luxe outlook of each device. In addition to the widely known SimaPhone, made in collaboration with DENIS SIMACHËV, the company produces its own Feld & Volk gadgets, implementing noble materials: gold, titanium, carbon fiber, Karelian birch wood, sapphire glass. Feld & Volk is also the only world's company to create «personalized mobile luxury». Glowing logos on the rear panel and eye-catching designs have become the distinction of Feld & Volk, getting the recognition of those for whom the potential of series mobile phones seems too weak. Currently, Feld & Volk collections are available worldwide and conquer every year the hearts of new connoisseurs.
